40th Annual National Grade School Convention of the CLMI Junior Members and Teacher Advisers with the theme "SPARK: Strengthening Proactive Advocacy on Revitalized Knowledge of Filipino Moral Values Towards a Stronger Nation"

The Children's Museum and Library, Inc. (CMLI) will be holding its 40th Annual National Grade School Convention of the CLMI Junior Members and Teacher Advisers with the theme "SPARK: Strengthening Proactive Advocacy on Revitalized Knowledge of Filipino Moral Values Towards a Stronger Nation" on September 25-29, 2019 at Teacher's Camp, Baguio City.

The convention aims to:

1. Strengthen youth awareness of the country's current issues and commit them by striving towards advocating reforms and improvement that life has to offer.
2. Prepare them to be socially conscious in sharing their time, talents and treasure by engaging them in meaningful activities; thus leaving a legacy for those around them.
3. Autograph students' tasks with quality and be known as great innovators by acknowledging their plans.
4. Revitalize stronger Filipino values and realize the genuine love of service to God and country being instruments of service leaving behind better than they found it to be.
5. Keep them proactive involved in nation building, set realistic goals and struggle to fulfill their invaluable role at home, school, community and country as marginal sectors of the society.

For more information and guidance, please see attached letter of CMLI.
