Dear _____:

Be part of a turnaround event in research in the country. Make your curriculum work well for your students, ensure their employability, and prepare them to their field of interest. Be a witness of the talks of big names in education and industries and take a paradigm shift in conducting research.

YES, YOU ARE INVITED to the FIRST UNIFIED RESEARCH CONFERENCE 2020 organized by the Institutional Research and Development Office of Sacred Heart College, Lucena City. This will be held on February 7-9, 2020 in two venues, namely: St. Jude Cooperative Hotel and Event Center, Diversion Road, Tayabas City, Quezon Province and in Sacred Heart College, Lucena City with the theme "Paradigm Shift In Research Towards Connecting Curriculum and Industries".

This research conference would like to achieve the following objectives:

1. convene professional teachers and graduate school students in various educational institutions and organizations in the country in a research conference;
2. initiate collaborative research projects among the participating schools and industries;
3. enhance the participants' research skills;
4. review the present curricula of different educational institutions vis-à-vis competencies needed in industries;
5. dialogue with practitioners from various industries on matching curriculum competencies and relevant needed skills in specific workplaces;
6. provide podium for the dissemination of research outputs;
7. recognize exemplary oral and poster research initiatives;
8. showcase best practices in curriculum articulation and delivery; and
9. help in the fund raising campaign of SHC in its rebuilding project;

Registration is pegged at Php 3,000.00 for early registrants which includes, conference kit, morning and afternoon snacks, lunch, book of abstracts, certificate of participation and a space or spot for the participating school's campaign and exhibit.
