This session explores current trends and issues in the Senior High School curriculum and equips educators with practical approaches for curriculum implementation and transition.

These activities are voluntary and intended solely for professional development. Participation shall be subject to existing DepEd policies, and no disruption of classes shall be allowed.

In this regard, we respectfully request your good office to issue a DepEd Advisory for the dissemination of this information to all schools within your division.

Attached herewith are the detailed program and registration information for your reference.

We are hopeful for your continued support in promoting quality education and professional growth among educators.

Thank you very much.

Respectfully yours,

SIMONET P. ESTOPACE
