1. The Department of Education Region IV-A CALABARZON continues to scale up the culture of research in order to provide wider avenue to those who have passion in research.
2. In this regard, this Office supports the CALABARZON Regional Development Council – Regional Research and Innovation Committee (RDC-RRIC) in conducting the 6th CALABARZON Research, Statistics and Innovation Forum on October 15, 2020 (Thursday), with the theme, “Bridging Research and Innovation towards CALABARZON’s Sustainable and Inclusive Development”.
3. The forum aims to promote a strong culture of research, showcase significant findings of research studies and strengthen statistical capacities of academic institutions, government agencies and local government units (LGUs) in the region.
4. The RDC-RRIC calls for the submission of quality research papers (completed within 2017-2019) from the academe, research institutions (public and private), and consortia focusing on research and development (R&D) and innovation that support the development of the following sectors and specific topics:
  - 1.1. industry (MSMEs);
  - 1.2. social (education, health, gender and development);
  - 1.3. environment and natural resources (sustainable energy, waste management, disaster management/resiliency);
  - 1.4. infrastructure (traffic management, transport system); and

Region IV-A (CALABARZON)

CALL FOR RESEARCH PAPERS

Goal and Scope

The CALABARZON Regional Development Council – Regional Research and Innovation Committee (RDC-RRIC) will be conducting the 6th CALABARZON Research, Statistics and Innovation Forum on October 15, 2020 (Thursday). The forum aims to promote a strong culture of research, showcase significant findings of research studies, and strengthen statistical capacities of academic institutions, government agencies, and local government units (LGUs) in the region.

In line with the theme “Bridging Research and Innovation towards CALABARZON’s Sustainable and Inclusive Development”, the RDC-RRIC calls for the submission of quality research papers from the academe, research institutions (public and private), and consortia focusing on research and development (R&D)<sup>1</sup> and innovation<sup>2</sup> that support the development of the following sectors and specific topics:

- a) Industry (MSMEs)
- b) Social (education, health, gender and development)
- c) Environment and natural resources (sustainable energy, waste management, disaster management/resiliency)
- d) Infrastructure (traffic management, transport system)
- e) Agriculture (reducing vulnerability of agriculture to climate change, increasing productivity, innovative technologies)

Participating Research Paper

The call is open to all scientists and researchers (group or individual) from CALABARZON state universities and colleges, government agencies, LGUs, R&D institutions, higher education institutions, and private industries doing R&D work.

<sup>1</sup> R&D is any systematic and creative work undertaken to increase the stock of new knowledge (idea/knowledge generation) and the use of this idea/knowledge to devise new applications (technology generation). Prototyping is its culmination (Republic Act 11293 Implementing Rules and Regulations).

<sup>2</sup> Innovation refers to the creation of new ideas that results in the development of new or improved products, processes, or services which are then spread or transferred across markets. Innovation applies to the entire spectrum of activities that provides value creation to the economy. Innovation thus covers commercialization, utilization and even extension of R&D products, processes and services (RA11293 IRR).

Submission of Research Papers

Participants must submit the following documents in electronic copy not later than June 5, 2020 (Friday)<sup>3</sup> by email to 2020researchforum4a@gmail.com:

1. accomplished registration form
2. one-page Abstract in pdf format, 250 to 350 words including keywords, single-spaced, font: Arial 11
3. endorsement by the head of agency/institution

General Guidelines

Research papers must be completed within the past three years (2017-2019). Only unpublished research papers will be accepted. Submitted entries will be reviewed by the Paper Evaluation Committee under the RDC-RRIC. Entries that are not compliant with the required format and not relevant to the theme, sectors, and specific topics identified will not be accepted. Plagiarism and other similar acts will not be tolerated. Authors of pre-qualified papers will be notified to submit their full paper on or before July 8, 2020 (Wednesday).

Both principal author and co-author can send a submission. For co-author, a written permission from the principal author should be provided. The principal author must acknowledge his/her co-author, if there is any. A maximum of two entries per researcher can be submitted, whether principal or co-author.

For inquiries and clarifications, the Secretariat/NEDA Region IV-A may be reached at telephone number (049) 502-0229 or email at 2020researchforum4a@gmail.com.
