2023 UPEIQ Senior High School Students' Summit and Youth Achievers Award, Year 2

Theme: "Competence, Impact, and Beyond: Re-framing the Role of Quezon Private Schools Students in Research, Entrepreneurship, and Leadership"

Title of the Conference	2023 UPEIQ Senior High School Students' Conference and Youth Achievers Award
Target Participants	Senior High School Students/Teachers/Administrators
Proposed Date and Venue	May 11, 2023 MSEUF – Catanauan, Quezon
Source of Funding	Registration
Proposed Budget
Registration Fee if any	Php200.00 per student participant
Proponent	UPEIQ

Rationale:

Student development in the new normal is a primary concern of the United Private Educational Institutions of Quezon Province (UPEIQ). This is done through ensuring that every student is given an equal opportunity and access to training programs that will enhance their competencies.

Considering three important aspects of student development such as honing leadership, and entrepreneurial skills, and research competency, the UPEIQ will stage the 2023 Senior High School Students' Summit and Awards Ceremonies, Year 2. The first part of the Summit will be devoted to the presentation of the invited plenary speaker; and the second part shall be focused on the presentation of the participants in the different categories, and will be capped-off by the awarding ceremonies.

Last year's summit focused on the government's effort to renew and develop entrepreneurship which begins in the basic education level, two of the topics that were covered in the summit were entrepreneurship and technopreneurship. These topics gave the students additional information on how to develop, enhance and apply their entrepreneurial and technopreneurial skills.

This 2023, in support with the Department of Education (DepEd's) policy development process, research agenda, and policy and program development and implementation, the department continues to promote and strengthen the culture of research in basic education. Hence, the main topic of this year's summit will center on how the interplay among research, entrepreneurship, and leadership will help in developing competent students whose impact can be measured by being productive members of the society today and beyond.

In the second part of this year's summit, selected participants will vie for the following awards:

1. Youth Achiever Award in the Field of Research
2. Youth Achiever Award in the Field of Entrepreneurship
3. Youth Achiever Award in the Field of Inspirational Leadership

Objectives:

Considering the value of student development and the importance of topics being highlighted above, the following are the specific objectives of this conference and award ceremonies:

1. Define the leadership values represented by the research that are carried on for entrepreneurship.
2. Discuss the role of research in entrepreneurship.
3. Reflect on the role of research in pushing the frontiers of knowledge and developing cutting-edge technologies that can be converted to something with economic value.
4. Describe the roles of research in the nation-building.
5. Share best practices in enhancing research competencies and honing research skills.
6. Recognize achievements of Senior High School students in the areas of research, entrepreneurship, and inspirational leadership.
