CALL FOR PAPERS & PARTICIPATION

July 1, 2023

Dear Administrators, Educators and Researchers,

Greetings of Peace!

Lumina Foundation, in partnership with the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA), De La Salle University- Southeast Asia Research Center & Hub (DLSU-SEARCH), St. Louis University (SLU), University of Southern Mindanao (USM), and the Network of Professional Researchers and Educators (NPRE), would like to invite you and your colleagues to attend the Workshops on Traditional Knowledge (Oral Histories and Lived Religious Traditions) of Select Indigenous Communities in Response to Climate Change. The dates of the workshops are the following:

Luzon (St. Louis University, Baguio City) on July 13 -14, 2023
Visayas (Boracay Tropical Resorts, Boracay) on August 10-11, 2023
Mindanao (University of Southern Mindanao, Cotabato) on September 28-29, 2023

The Local History Writing Workshops on Traditional Knowledge (Oral Histories and Lived Religious Traditions) of Indigenous Communities in Response to Climate Change in Luzon, Visayas, and Mindanao aim to contribute to the understanding of indigenous peoples' vulnerability to climate change, adaptation to it, and mitigation, collating local and regional data relevant to understanding impacts, adaptations, and mitigations of climate change at the local level, engaging indigenous people in the dialogue and debate on climate change, and informing policymakers about indigenous vulnerability, knowledge, and adaptation capacity.

We look forward to your positive response and we hope that you and your colleagues can join us. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Mr. Clarence del Castillo
President, Lumina Foundation
