2023 SEAMEO-JAPAN EDUCATION FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AWARD

The Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization (SEAMEO) and the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, Japan (MEXT), in cooperation with the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) Multisectoral Regional Office in Bangkok, will conduct the 2023 SEAMEO-Japan Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) Award with the theme, Promoting Environmental Education through Utilizing Renewable Energy.

The 2023 SEAMEO-Japan ESD Award aims to:

1. increase public awareness and acquire knowledge, skills, values, experiences, and also the determination to solve present and future environmental problems;
2. encourage schools and communities in Southeast Asia and Japan to use renewable energy to reduce the impact of climate change and create a more sustainable and environmentally friendly future; and
3. promote and share initiatives and good practices that integrate environmental education and the use of renewable energy into teaching and learning practices and school's programs.

The SEAMEO Secretariat invites all public and private Kindergarten, elementary, secondary, vocational, and technical (equivalent to Grade 12) schools in the 11 SEAMEO Member Countries to participate by completing the submission form which can be downloaded from the SEAMEO website: <https://link.seameo.org/2023SEAMEOJapanESDAward>.

The deadline for submission of entries will be on August 15, 2023. Details of the award and guidelines for submission of entries are also available on the SEAMEO website.
