Dear Department of Education Philippines,

Greetings in St. La Salle!

The De La Salle University Student Government - Judiciary Department is the third branch of the University Student Government which is mandated to protect the rights of students through settling issues and controversies. Our team is composed of Lasallian students and young leaders who are dedicated to the cause of Justice, Peace, and Accountability.

This year, the DLSU Judiciary wishes to partner with your office in inviting students to join our event, Sine Qua Non: The Importance of the Judiciary in the Philippine Legal System. This event, which will be in the form of an online discussion forum, will be held on June 4 2022 (Saturday), from 2 - 5pm.

Our confirmed speakers include Atty. Chel Diokno, Chairman of the Free Legal Assistance Group and Atty. Charmaine Alovera, Clerk of Court V Regional Trial Court in Pasig City. We hope that this event may help build early interest in the Philippine Judiciary system especially to those who wish to take up the legal profession in the future.

We have attached further information and the event sign-up link in the letter below. Feel free to contact us for any clarifications that you may have and we will be happy to assist.

Regards,

GIO JERSON C. ALMONTE

Judiciary Department

Dear Department of Education Philippines,

Greetings in St. La Salle!

The De La Salle University Student Government - Judiciary Department is the third branch of the University Student Government which is mandated to protect the rights of students through settling issues and controversies. Our team is composed of Lasallian students and young leaders who are dedicated to the cause of Justice, Peace, and Accountability.

This year, the DLSU USG Judiciary is organizing its culminating event, Sine Qua Non: The Importance of the Judiciary in the Philippine Legal System. This event, which will be in the form of an online discussion forum, will be held on June 4 2022 (Saturday), from 2 - 5pm via ZOOM. Sine Qua Non is a discussion forum that aims to inform the participants regarding the importance of the Judiciary in the Philippines through multiple perspectives from the different branches of the government. Through this, we hope to better inform students about the importance of justice and law in our society and empower them to become its stewards. Our speakers include Atty. Chel Diokno, Chairman of the Free Legal Assistance Group and Atty. Charmaine Alovera, Clerk of Court V Regional Trial Court in Pasig City.

Given this, we hope to partner with DepEd Philippines towards further promoting our pre-conference and conference events to interested schools in the country. We would like to invite DepEd schools to participate in our event so their students may have an early understanding on the importance of the third branch of our government. Furthermore, students who are interested in joining the law profession in the future may take great insights from this event. We look forward to reaching more students and create a lasting impact towards a more just and fair country

We have included the link to the event below. There are only limited slots remaining so we advise that students sign up early to secure their slot. Further information can be found in the page below.

Yours in St. La Salle,

Gio Jerson C. Almonte
