Warm greetings of innovation and excellence!

We are pleased to invite your teachers/faculty for the upcoming three-day seminar entitled “DALUYAN: Developing Academic Leadership and Upholding Years of Advancement for Nurturers - Flowing Towards Teacher Excellence through Effective Classroom Observation”. This seminar will be held on April 10-12, 2026 at Baguio-Benguet Community Credit Cooperative, Baguio City.

The seminar will strengthen teachers’ instructional competence through the lens of classroom observation as a developmental and reflective process.

Seminar Topics:

1. DALUYAN Session 1: Understanding Classroom Observation as Professional Growth
2. DALUYAN Session 2: Observation-Ready Lesson Design
3. DALUYAN Session 3: High-Impact Teaching Strategies That Show
4. DALUYAN Session 4: Executing an Observation-Aligned Lesson
5. DALUYAN Session 5: Evidence-Based Teaching and Professional Documentation
6. DALUYAN Session 6: Reflective Practice and Post-Observation Growth

Particular Continuing Professional Competency/ies:

- ✓ Explain the purpose and benefits of classroom observation and identify ways it contributes to professional growth.
- ✓ Develop a lesson plan with clearly defined learning objectives and corresponding teaching strategies that demonstrate observable instructional effectiveness.
- ✓ Apply student-centered teaching strategies and questioning/facilitation techniques during a simulated teaching demonstration.
- ✓ Deliver a lesson in a simulated or actual classroom setting, demonstrating professional presence, time management, and the ability to adapt strategies to learner needs.
- ✓ Collect, organize, and present types of instructional evidence (e.g., learner outputs, lesson artifacts) to document teaching effectiveness.
- ✓ Analyze observation feedback, write a reflective teaching narrative, and develop a personal action plan for continuous professional growth.
