TO: School Owners, School Principals, School Administrators,
School Coordinators, Private Educational Institutions in Quezon

Dear Esteemed Education Leaders:

Warm greetings!

The United Private Educational Institutions of Quezon, Inc. (UPEIQ) cordially invites you to participate in the upcoming General Assembly (GA) to be held on Thursday, April 23, 2026, at Sevilla's Hotel and Resort, Domoit, Lucena City.

With the theme, “Navigating Changes: Quezon Private Schools Responding to Emerging Trends and Challenges in Education,” this General Assembly aims to bring together key leaders in private education to engage in meaningful discussions and shared learning experiences as we collectively respond to the rapidly evolving educational landscape in the Philippines. This gathering is especially significant as it will cover timely and relevant topics that directly impact school operations and instructional delivery, including:

- DepEd's Three-Term Calendar
- Strengthened Senior High School (SSHS)
- Upcoming In-Service Training Schedules and Topics for Teachers

Your presence and active participation are highly encouraged, as this assembly will serve as an important platform for alignment, collaboration, and informed decision-making among private school leaders across the province. Your insights and engagement will greatly contribute to strengthening our collective efforts in ensuring quality, responsive, and future-ready education.
