DIVISION MEMORANDUM DM No. 193, s. 2020

ONLINE REGISTRATION AND SCHOOL TESTING CENTERS FOR COMPUTER-BASED ENGLISH PROFICIENCY TEST 2020

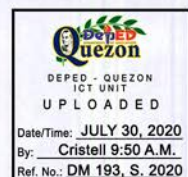

To: CID and SGOD Chiefs, Division Testing Coordinator, Public Schools District Supervisors, Elementary and Secondary School Heads, District and School Testing Coordinators, Teacher-Applicants, All Others Concerned

- Relative to the upcoming administration of Computer-Based English Proficiency Test 2020 by the Bureau of Education Assessment (BEA), all teacher-applicants of SDO – Quezon needing to take the English Proficiency Test (EPT) are advised to accomplish the CB-EPT Registration Form thru the link <https://tinyurl.com/EPTQUEZONonline> until August 1, 2020, 11:59PM.

The following are the important reminders for the conduct of the test:

- Only online registered examinees will be allowed to enter the assigned testing center and take the test. Walk-in examinees will not be allowed.
 - Erroneous information (like name and e-mail address) are critical for the assigning of login credentials like username and password during the day of the test, and will result in error that will invalidate the online registration entry of CB-EPT registrant. Please provide correct and working e-mail addresses.
 - PRC ID or any valid government issued ID containing the birthdate of the examinee will be required during exam.
- As per Executive Order 112 Omnibus Guidelines on the Implementation of Community Quarantine, the minimum and non-negotiable health and safety standards will be implemented (wearing of masks, physical distancing at all times), and the following are not permitted to go outside, thus not allowed to take the test:
 - Any person below 21 years old and those who are 60 and above.
 - Those with comorbidities, immunodeficiency, or other health risks.
 - Pregnant

3. A separate memorandum will be released for the masterlist of online registered applicants, including their assigned testing centers, and the specific date, session and time of their respective Computer-Based English Proficiency Test.
4. Public schools district supervisors and school heads who have teacher-applicants needing the CB-EPT for 2020 are requested to inform their respective applicants to this online registration.
5. The online testing centers (see Enclosure 1) through the public schools district supervisors (PSDSs) and their respective school heads are requested to conduct advance preparations on the following:
 - Seek advice/clearance from local health authorities (barangay and municipal) if it's safe to hold the test in the prospective venue
 - Secure communication lines with local health authorities before, during, and after the test
 - Secure appropriate health supplies (alcohol, disinfectants/sanitizers, disposable masks, etc) and other relevant materials.
 - Develop a response plan in case someone becomes ill or shows symptoms of COVID-19, including isolation area, transportation for health facilities, and other quarantine procedures, and contact tracing.
6. The concerned public schools district supervisors (PSDSs), school heads of the online testing centers, district and school testing coordinators, district and school IT coordinators, district and school health coordinators, and other testing support staff of the abovementioned schools are requested to answer on the Registry of Division, District, and School Testing Committees for CB-EPT Form using the link <https://tinyurl.com/CBEPTcommittee> on or before August 2, 2020.
7. Online Orientation of all members of Division, District, and School Testing Committees will be held on 9:00 AM, August 4, 2020 via Google Meet. The meeting link will be sent to the e-mail addresses provided by the members using the Registry link above.
8. Immediate and widest dissemination of this Memorandum is expected.
