1. The DepEd-Quezon Curriculum Implementation Division - Instructional Management Section (CID-IMS) through Project SHINE (Strengthening Holistic Interventions to Nurture Teachers Empowerment) in partnership with the San Pablo Colleges Graduate School Dean and Fellows will conduct an Online In-service Training for Inclusive Education entitled "Creating a More Inclusive School in the New Normal" on June 17-18, 2021.
2. The training aims to capacitate receiving teachers and general education teachers on the necessary skills that will enable them to design and execute inclusive teaching practices. Specifically, it aims to:
  - a. equip teachers with foundational knowledge of inclusive education, nature and characteristics of learners with some type of disability,
  - b. acquire effective instructional strategies and special accommodations and the implications for inclusive teaching in the new normal,
  - c. keep abreast with relevant teaching skills for the realization of DepEd Inclusive Education, and
  - d. gain an overview on the roles and responsibilities of leaders in supporting special education in schools and community.
3. Participants to this activity are receiving teachers/general education teachers who accommodate learners with special needs, academic difficulties, disabilities, and
