This initiative supports the current efforts of the Department of Education in communicating with the various stakeholders and in the professional updating of the school officials and teachers in the various field units. The intention of the project is to allow teachers to enrich their knowledge on curriculum, learning delivery, and assessment at their most comfortable time. In addition, school officials will be provided updates on their main task of leading and learning.
3. The DepEd Teaches aims to provide teachers and school officials an array of videos that will improve their knowledge and broaden their perspective on learning and school management through the lens of the DepEd officials and renowned teachers who will facilitate the discussion. Specifically, it aims to promote an online platform for DepEd to engage teachers, and other members of the DepEd family in an online learning community.
