2022 CONFERENCE OF BASIC EDUCATION RESEARCHERS

1. The target participants are the educational leaders and managers, teachers, school heads, education supervisors, non-teaching personnel and other research practitioners in the region.
2. The researchers should pre-identify their paper on the priority research themes indicated in the Basic education Research Agenda such as:
 - a. Teaching and Learning
 - b. Governance
 - c. Human Resource Development
 - d. Governance
 - e. Disaster Risk Reduction and Management
 - f. Inclusive Education
 - g. Gender and Development
3. Research studies must be completed from 2020 to 2022. The findings generated from the identified research themes should yield towards evidence-based actions for ensuring access to a complete basic education, improving the quality of education and ensuring effective, transparent and engaging governance. Entries that are not compliant with the required format and not relevant to the theme will not be accepted.
4. Abstract should consist of 200-250 words following the structured format:
 - a. Purpose – Objectives of the research
 - b. Design/methodology/approach – How the research was conducted, includes sampling, mode of data collection, theoretical or subject scope of the paper
 - c. Findings – Results of the research, analysis of data and discussion
 - d. Research limitations/implications – Methodology parameters that can restrict the scope of the research findings and are outside the control of the researchers.
 - e. Originality/value – What is new in the research? What is the value of the research? Is the research holistic?
 - f. Keywords – Listing of keywords will facilitate the search for the research study and should be italicized.
5. Researchers of pre-qualified abstracts will be notified through a regional memorandum to submit their full paper.
6. There will be three types of presentation; oral (live), infographic video and research bulletin through poster presentation to be identified by the Regional Research Committee (RRC). Qualified presenters shall be guided by the following mechanics:

a. Oral Presentation

Presentation shall last for 10 minutes with 5 minutes for open forum. Prepare a powerpoint presentation with the following format:

- Slide 1 – Title and author/s
- Slide 2 – Rationale
- Slide 3 – Key Literature
- Slide 4 – Methodology
- Slide 5-7 – Findings
- Slide 8 – Implications
- Slide 9 – Conclusions
- Slide 10 – Recommendations
- Slide 11 - References

b. Infographic Video Presentation

An infographic video is a visual representation of data and knowledge in the form of an online video. The entertaining combination of audio and visuals in the three-minute presentation should make an emotional connection, provide high-value information and improve their perspective on topic of the research.

To learn more in creating this infographic video presentation, you can refer to this link: <https://www.animaker.com/blog/video-infographics-make-10-simple-steps/>

c. Research Bulletin/Poster Presentation

Research Bulletin is a two-page document that summarizes the results of a research project in a manner accessible to the public. Prepare a research bulletin that summarizes the study in 1-2 pages only with the prescribed outline and content. (font style – Book Antigua, font size – 11, paper size – A4, margin – normal, spacing – single space, orientation – portrait, column – two columns)

Introduction – In 1 paragraph, describe the problem or issue that inspires the researcher/s to conduct the study. Present the statement of the problem or research objectives. Another paragraph will be for the presentation of the research design, methodology, respondents, research locale and ethical consideration.

Findings/Results and Discussion – Present the findings in each specific research question or objective. Use graphic organizers (tables, graphs, etc.) or pictures to support the findings.

Conclusion and Recommendation – Present a short conclusion synthesizing the findings and specify corresponding recommendations.

References – In bullet form, present relevant references used in the research.

7. Full papers of all qualified researchers will be submitted to the conference committee and must be written as a manuscript for journal publication observing APA style which has the following components: Abstract, Introduction, Methodology (including respondents/subjects of the study, sampling, data collection, data analysis ethical issues etc.), Results and Discussion, Conclusion, Recommendations and References.
