DIVISION MEMORANDUM

DM No. 794, s. 2022

NATIONAL VISION SCREENING PROGRAM (NSVP) FOR KINDERGARTEN LEARNERS IN SELECTED SCHOOLS

To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendents
Division Chiefs
School Heads In-Charge of Governance and Operations
Elementary School Heads
School Health Personnel
All Others Concerned

1. In reference to OUA Memo 00-0522-0058, dated May 12, 2022 entitled "Implementation of the Child Blindness Program (CBP) for Kindergarten Learners", the Department of Education in collaboration with the Department of Health and the Fred Hollows Foundation will implement the National Vision Screening Program (NVSP) as mandated in the National Vision Act 11358 of 2019.
2. Relevant to this, DepEd Quezon, being one of the four pilot divisions to implement this program, aims to identify the 8,750 learners who will undergo screening and shall be shared to Fred Hollows Foundation and Provincial Health Office for proper intervention.
3. The group of Ophthalmologists from Quezon Province will facilitate the vision screening using the spot vision screener in the targeted schools and to be assisted by the respective district nurses.
4. Enclosed hereto is the list of schools per district included in this program for reference.
5. This activity shall strictly adhere to Time-on-Task Policy which means that there will be no disruption of classes during the conduct activity. Furthermore, the screening of kindergarten learners will be done after their classes. The school heads should ensure proper arrangement for the smooth implementation of the activity and in consultation with their parents/guardians.
